

ISATT Conference 2009

Navigating in Educational Contexts: Identities and Cultures in Dialogue

1 – 4 July 2009

University of Lapland, Rovaniemi - Finland

The 14th Biennial Meeting of The International Study Association on Teachers and Teaching (ISATT) will take place at University of Lapland in Rovaniemi Finland.

The purpose of ISATT is to promote, present, discuss and disseminate research on teachers and teaching and contribute to theory formation in this field in order to gain more insight into these aspects of education, add to knowledge, and enhance the quality of education through improved teaching and forms of professional development at all levels of education.

The conference will include a Pre-Conference for Doctoral Students 29 – 30 June 2009.

Important dates and deadlines:	Deadline for abstract submission	15 January 2009
	Notification of acceptance by	28 February 2009
	Deadline for papers	30 March 2009
	Deadline for registration (early bird rate)	1 April 2009

National Conference

Teacher as a Researcher and Research on and for Teachers

2 – 3 June 2008

University of Lapland, Rovaniemi - Finland

The aim of the National Conference is to gather up researchers on teachers, teaching and teacher education to discuss their research and also closer networking possibilities. The conference is open for participants from other countries as well, especially researchers from the Baltic countries, Scandinavia and Russia, who are invited to attend. The conference language will be English.

The conference keynote speakers will be Professor Pam Denicolo from England and Professor Michael Kompf from Canada.

Invitations to the National Conference will be sent out in January 2008. Registration deadline is 15 April 2008.

The ISATT 2009 website (www.ulapland.fi/isatt2009) will be opened 15 December 2007.

Further information:
Rovaniemi-Lapland Congresses
University of Lapland
PO Box 122, 96101 Rovaniemi, Finland
Tel. +358 (0)16 341 2799, Fax +358 (0)16 341 2800
Email: congress@ulapland.fi